WWW. _____ .COM

WWW. _____ .COM

We describe the design of a website as the complete layout of the website. All pages, the structure of the pages, frames of the layout and tables. As your website designer we are responsible for these services and only the idea of what you want within this design is the client's responsibility. Designing will begin once the client has provided their ideas for the website unless it has been determined that Keitaj Images & Designs has been given complete design control from conception to completion. Developing is the process of completing the design. This includes the gathering of information, selection of colors, layouts, number of pages, type of website, etc.

Content:

[Part 1] We are not responsible for supplying the content to your website. You and your company are responsible. Content which can drag a project out for a longer time than necessary must be provided within a timely manner. This time frame is within the first 15 days from the start of the website project. [Part 2] If you wish to pay Keitaj Images & Designs for providing content for your website then we become responsible for the content. This means that we will research and develop the actual content that will fill areas of the website design based on what we have or may agree on.

- Our rights to website content we provide:
